

OUT TRAVELER

SEARCH OUTTRAVELER

BACK TO OUT

- HOME
- CITY GUIDES
- TOP STORIES
- VACATION PACKAGES
- MY CITY
- OUTTRAVELER G.P.S.
- VIDEO
- NEWSLETTER

SHARE

PICTORIAL

Posted August 11, 2011

Labor Day Getaways

Five nauti but nice hotel options for sending off summer right.

« BACK

Page 6 / 6

Cavallo Point, San Francisco, CA

COURTESY MR AND MRS SMITH

At ease, soldier! The former Fort Baker, now Cavallo Point, has been sustainably restored to a level of sophisticated comfort that will have you wanting to enlist as soon as possible.

Just south of Sausalito, whitewashed old military quarters with red roofs and wrap-around porches form half of the digs. The other half are up-to-the-minute contemporary, solar-paneled and renewably constructed, with views of the Golden Gate itself. Throw in a clubby bar with microbrewery beers; the Healing Arts Spa offering meditation, hypnotherapy sessions, a tea bar, massages and more; a restaurant with real culinary clout; organic cooking classes, and a national park on your doorstep, and it's clear that the erstwhile army base has been honorably discharged.

601 Murray Circle Sausalito, San Francisco; from $295

For more accommodation inspiration and to book your stylish Labor Day stay, visit MrAndMrsSmith.com or call 800-464-2040.

« BACK

Page 6 / 6

COMMENTS

Fall for Hawaii

Save Up to 55% OFF*

BOOK NOW

Castle Resorts & Hotels

FACEBOOK ACTIVITY

- 24 Hours in the IceHotel | Pictorial
10 people recommend this.
- Fall 2007 | Our History: Lorca's Spain | Features
2 people recommend this.
- Top Halloween Haunts | Pictorial
One person recommends this.
- 24 Hours in the IceHotel | Pictorial
One person recommends this.
- Dreamy Destination Weddings | Pictorial
32 people recommend this.
- CULTURAL CALENDAR | Europe's Fab Four
15 people recommend this.
- The Standard of Gay Travel
One person recommends this.

Facebook social plugin