

Endeavoring to Provide A Healthier Stay at Cavallo Point

Our highest priority is always the health and safety of our valued guests and our employees. In compliance with the most current guidelines of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and local health officials, Cavallo Point has adopted additional health and safety measures as part of our Safe Stay Commitment to guest service. With the goal to provide a guest experience that is both healthful and exceptionally rewarding, we need your assistance and cooperation in following our protocols for guest conduct during your stay with us, which include maintaining social distancing and wearing masks in all public areas.

We appreciate your understanding and acknowledgment that when you travel away from your home, we are not able to guarantee that these measures will be sufficient to fully assure your health because of uncertainties surrounding COVID-19. Your agreement to observe these protocols, along with other guests and our staff doing their parts, will help support your health and safety, as well as that of our other guests and our employees.

At this point in time, Cavallo Point is currently accepting guests who are traveling on essential business or other purposes allowed by local health orders. If you are making a reservation to stay with us, you are acknowledging that you understand this limitation and that you will be staying with us under the terms of our Essential Travel package. More information on local health orders can be found on the Marin Health & Human Services website.
